Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament:

Adoration of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament takes place this Friday immediately after the 9:00 a.m. Holy Mass. Join us for the Mass or join us anytime from 9:30 a.m. through 12 noon. We invite you to visit Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. Jesus is here waiting to bless and refresh you in mind, in heart and in spirit. Come and visit Our Lord, he is waiting for you this Friday!

In 1997, Pope Saint John Paul II instituted a day of prayer for women and men in consecrated life. This celebration is attached to the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord on February 2nd. This Feast is also known as Candlemas Day; the day on which candles are blessed symbolizing Christ who is the light of the world. So too, those in consecrated life are called to reflect the light of Jesus Christ to all peoples. The celebration of World Day for Consecrated Life is transferred to the following Sunday in order to highlight the gift of consecrated persons for the whole Church. We hope that you will join us in celebrating this World Day of Prayer for Consecrated Life!

World Day for Consecrated Life will be celebrated in the Church on Wednesday, February 2, 2022 and in parishes over the weekend of February 5-6, 2022. Please pray for all those who have made commitments in the consecrated life, and be sure to thank them on their special day. May they continue to be inspired by Jesus Christ and respond generously to God's gift of their vocation.

If you would like your 2021 church donation form for your taxes, call the church office and we will mail it out to you.

As the world prepared to mark International Holocaust Remembrance Day on Thursday, January 27th, Pope Francis urged families to remind younger generations about the millions of people, especially Jews, killed at the hands of the Nazi regime.

“This unspeakable cruelty must never be repeated” said Pope Francis as he made that appeal at the end of the Wednesday General Audience, one day before the world dedicated a day to recalling the horrors of the Holocaust, also known as the Shoah. The International Holocaust Remembrance Day is held on the date of the liberation of the Auschwitz-Birkenau death camp on 27 January 1945. The Pope said the world must remember the “extermination of millions of Jews, people of various nationalities and religious faiths.” He lamented the genocide of around 6 million of Europe’s Jews, or two-thirds of the continent’s Jewish population, at the hands of the Nazi regime.

Pope Francis also appealed to everyone, but especially to “educators and families, so that they might engender in younger generations the awareness of the horrors of this dark page in human history.” He said: “It must never be forgotten, so that we can build a future in which human dignity is never again trampled upon.”

Pope Francis visited the ruins of the Auschwitz-Birkenau concentration camp in 2016, where the Catholic priest St. Maximilian Kolbe was killed, along with 1.1 million others. The Pope spoke no words on that occasion, but only embraced several of the camp’s survivors. He wrote his prayer in Spanish in the Book of Honor: “Lord, have mercy on your people. Lord, forgive so much cruelty!”
