Thought for the Week:

For wheresoever one Person of the Trinity is, there the whole Trinity is present. For It is undivided in Itself, and has a most entire Oneness.”
St. John Chrysostom, Dr. of the Church

Peter's Pence Collection: A second collection will be taken on the June 26th weekend in support of "Peter's Pence" that assists the Holy Father with his charitable works. Your donations help the Holy Father to respond with emergency financial assistance to the neediest and most disadvantaged throughout the world--especially those who suffer as a result of war, oppression, and natural disasters. Your contributions will be combined with those of Catholics from around the world to help the Holy Father reach out to the voiceless and most vulnerable in need.

The WELCOME COMMITTEE is seeking helpers! We want to reach out to new members and tell them all about the good things that Saint Joseph the Worker has to offer. If you are interested in joining this band of merry parishioners, please call the office and leave your contact information. Thank you for considering your participation in this vital committee.

Looking To Serve? The Community Café is a wonderful opportunity for anyone to come for a hot meal and fellowship. It is held every Tuesday at the Presbyterian Church (behind Donna's Café) through a partnership of several area churches that provide the side dishes and desserts, while the Presbyterian Church supplies the entre, plates and utensils. It attracts seniors, widows, widowers and others who live alone, handicapped people, people whose budgets are aided by an extra free meal, and just anyone who wants to get out of the house and enjoy a good supper. Meals are placed in covered to-go boxes and guests can choose to eat in the church hall or take the meal home.

Every seven weeks, St. Joseph the Worker Church helps to provide side dishes and desserts. Upcoming dates for our turn are: July 26--desserts, September 13--side dishes, November 1--desserts, and December 20--side dishes. We also need two people to help make up boxes, distribute them and clean up after the supper. Would you be able to help maybe twice during the year? (Or as many times as you wish)! If you're interested, please email Jodi Swiderek at jobentenn@gmail.com or you can call her cell or text her at (423) 404-2258. Thank you and bless you for considering this worthy activity.

Reminder about "Christmas in July"-The Angel Tree will be here in July: Through this program we provide a new school outfit (a shirt, pants, and shoes, unwrapped and in a bag or backpack) for children starting back to school in August. They are delivered to the church and then transported to be handed out. Watch for our Angel Tree and pick an Angel so that you can help a child get ready for the new school year.

The U.S Bishops' International Justice & Peace Chairman speaks on the attack of the Catholic Church in Nigeria: On Pentecost Sunday (June 5), gunmen threw explosive devices and fired on the congregation gathered at St. Francis Xavier Church in the city of Owo, Ondo State in Nigeria, killing at least 50 people. In response to the attack in Owo, Bishop David J. Malloy of Rockford, chairman of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops' Committee on International Justice and Peace sent a letter of solidarity to the president of the Catholic Bishops' Conference of Nigeria where he reiterated his solidarity with the Church in Nigeria amidst the unabated violence besetting Nigerians and the Church particularly. He also stated his hope that those responsible for these acts are brought to swift justice. Bishop Malloy issued the following statement: "Nigeria has sadly become all too familiar with such growing violence. In addition to the horrible loss of life, this attack is a disturbing development as it occurred in the far south of Nigeria where such bloodshed heretofore has been largely unknown. Just three weeks earlier, a young Christian student was accused by fellow students of blasphemy and brutally murdered. When police arrested two suspects, riots broke out directed at several Church buildings.

"The U.S. bishops' Committee on International Justice and Peace has supported the Church in Nigeria for many years in its effort to stop terrorist attacks by Boko Haram and armed groups, to build peace between herders and farmers, and to ensure credible and transparent elections. Bishops on our committee have visited Nigeria and have received their Church leaders in Washington. We join our Holy Father, Pope Francis in commending the souls of the dead to the loving mercy of God and imploring 'divine healing and consolation' upon those who are grieving. The committee remains prayerfully determined as ever to support our brothers and sisters of the Church in Nigeria." (USCCB website: By Public Affairs Office)
